As a CM, have you wondered about how earned value management should be applied in support of your project, if at all?

In addition to clarifying inherent nuances related to the terminology, this presentation will examine lessons learned, and more importantly, will offer several recommended practices that can be leveraged by CMs and their Owners.

Learning objectives:

- Understand the definition of earned value (EV), earned value management (EVM), and earned value management systems (EVMS)
- Understand how the above terms have historically been applied in support of construction projects
- Understand the differences in application of these terms between government and commercial projects
- Understand recommended practices relating to the use of EVM in support of construction projects

Seminar Instructor:

Michael R. Nosbisch, CCC, PSP, Managing Principal, Western Region
Project Time & Cost, Inc. and current President of AACE International

Panel Members:

Brian Boudreau, Executive Officer – Project Management Oversight
Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority

Steven G. Light, PE, PMP, Chief for Alternative Technologies, Chemical Ordnance Demilitarization Program, Huntsville Engineering and Support Center
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
